THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., AUGUST 30, 1881.

A WISH. I wish that I were
A big bank of gum,
And some presty girl,
Bemarking, "Yam, yum
Would in her sweet mouth
The whole of me cram,
and 'wixt her bright pe gram
My shapellness lan.

Mow happy I'd be

How happy I'd be
To be steeking atom
In such an abode,
And never go out!
To always be near
Those honeyful lips!
Oh, but to be there
I'd give money and ships!

by Secretary Hunt relative to discharges from the maval service;

No enlisted man or enlisted boy in the naval service of the United States shall be discharged from such service-except for cause before the expiration of the term of his culistment or engagement. Applications for discharge by a party himself or by others in his behalf must be made to the commanding officer of the ship, vessel, station, or navy-rard in which the person desiring such discharge may at the time be serving, and such officer shall report his recommendation to the Department for its approval. No commanding officer is authorized to recommend the discharge of any chilsted man or boy upon merely the request or entreaty of such man or boy, his parents, friends, relatives, or others. Recommendations resting solely upon such considerations will be disregarded by the Department. Applications from Senators and members of the House of Representatives and others in authority, and from relatives and friends of persons in the navalservice, for the discharge of any enlisted man or boy will not be acted upon by the Department except after they have been referred to and reported upon by the continuous from the discharge of any enlisted man or boy will not be acted upon by the Department except after they have been referred to and reported upon by the commanding officer or superior in authority under whom the person sought to be discharged as serving at the time. The exigencies of the service and the numerous applications for discharges daily pouring into the Department render the influxible observance of these rules necessary.

River Traffic Suspended. Navigation is virtually closed on the Ohio River. None but little Cumberland and Kentucky River boats are running, and but few of them. At Pittsburg the stage is seven inches below low-water mark; at Louisville, thirty inches; in the canal at Evansville, twenty-four inches, and at the mouth of the Ohio River at Cairo, six feet nine inches. The river business is suspended the entire length of the river. The second congress of the German thess this opened Sunday in Berlin. About 120 players were present. After an address of welcome from the chairman of the committee draw-ing for the champion tournament was proceeded with. There are eighten a competitors, including Messrs. Blackburn of London, Mason of New York

L. and W. Paulsen, and a Russian. Most of the others fre Germans. Play will begin on Monday. Dedicating a Church. The new African Methodist Episcopal Church in East Long Branch was dedicated at Long Branch Sunday afternoon by Bishop Campbell, of Philadelphia, assisted by Rev. J. Walker Jackson, chaplain in the United States army; Rev. C. J. Young, pastor of the First Reformed Church, Rev. J. A. Jones, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church, and Rev. C. Garrison, pastor of the new church.

Not That Devens. But Another Devens. To the Editor of THE REPUBLICAN: An article has been going the rounds of the newspapers to the effect that ex-Attorney-General Devens was traveling with his daughte In Nevada and narrowly escaped severe injury from the upsetting of a stage coach. Now, the daughter feature of the paragraph is a great surprise to his numerous friends in the city, as it was understood during the four years of his residence with us here that he had lived a life of backelor-

SISTERS OF THE SEA.

ASBURY PARK AND OCEAN GROVE.

The Two Places Described-Holy Ground-The Three Lakes-Bathing Establishmenta-Fancy Bathing Costumes-No Hugging Allowed-Pretty Girls.

special Correspondence of THE REPUBLICAN Assury Park, Aug. 26 .- I have been thinking that a brief synopsis of the "Twin Cities by the Sea," Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, would be of interest to the readers of your valuable paper and at the same time afford some amus to the "nufortunates" who are compelled bree of circumstances to remain at home dur ing the hot spell. I will, therefore, give a short review of what I have heard and seen, canta rapid glance at the hotels and cottages, and tell you what we do "to be saved." The Park is by far the PRETTER PLACE OF THE TWO, being better laid out, and having hotels and cot-tages that compare, if not in style and architecture, do most certainty as regards comfort, with those at the Summer Capital (Long Branch). Among the hotels I notice the Coleman—the fluest and best kept—Metropolitan, Oriental, and Ocean. The cottages are numerous, and noted for their neatness and simplicity of design. The Cahill, Romain, and Trojan are worthy of mention. Hero you can be accommodated with almost everything, were that which is inclined to make the head light and feet heavy; take your drive and bath on Sunday as well as week days, play billiards and en-plus—in fact, enjoy yourself as well as mortal could wish.

THE GROVE IS A LITTLE DIFFERENT from the Park, both in ways and customs. No billiards or ten-pins and no drive or bath (wash Saturday) on Sunday. The slave to the pernicious weed is even at bay; for although allowed to smoke and chew within "the holy ground," he cannot buy tobacco; he takes the ferry and goes to the Park and is made happy. Here the plous dwell in close community, and woe be to him that molests them in their devotions. The Sheldon, Arlington, and Atlantic are the most noticeable hotels, and the Benedict, Grubb (suggestive), and Sanders cottages deserve mention. The ice-cream saloon of Morrow & Day is one of the finest of its kind, and far exceeds in excellence and taste many that I have seen in large cities.

THERE ARE THREE LAKES, each devoted to certain pleasures: Fletcher, at Ocean Grove, to sailing: Wealey, that divides the Grove and Park, to rowing, and Deal, at the Park, to crabbing. The bathing establishments, both at the Park and Grove, are many; but Ross, at the Grove, seems to be the best patronized, and why I have been at less to understand, for the accommoations at the others are tar superior and the each as good. The system adopted by Ross is sique if not pleasant. When you procure your beech as good. The system adopted by Ross is unique if not pleasant. When you procure your bathing suit no bath-house is assigned you, but you are obliged to hunt up one of the custodians of the bath-houses (i believe there are two for three hundred houses), who, when found, assigns one to you. When ready for the bath you look him up again for the purpose of having him lock the bath-house door. Upon your return from the bath you generally feel very much like our beathen friend,

"ALL THE SAME LIKE AN HEE WAGON."
All THE SAME LIKE AN HEE WAGON."
And It is exceedingly refreshing if you do not immediately find your custodian. I have never been able to find him immediately. This method causes a great deal of amovance and some ludicrous scenes, for in the excitement of bathing one is apit to forget the number of his or her bath-house, and in consequence often gets in the wrong box. Whereas, when you procure yoursult, if the key of your bath-house is properly numbered and atlashed to a leather string for the purpose of fastening either around your neck or to your suit (like is done at Manhattan Beach), were given to you, this trouble would be obviated. The fancy bathing costumes adopted by the ladies seem to be worn for the purpose of the sand-bath.

OR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE MASHER. OR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE MASHER.

Oh, he is here! for you see many so attired reclining in graceful attitudes on the beach; but they never take a dip in the briny. Colored hose are mostly worn by ladies while bathing. The beauty of the Grove and Park is, as a friend remarked, the solid comfort you find, and that you can "go as you please;" but, boys, you cannot do as you please. This was demonstrated the other night, from what I saw on the beach—for you must act with decorum while there. A couple were lying in a too recumbent position, watching (") the sad nea waves, when an officer of the law, with Hibermian accord, accosted them; "Ye will have to sit up straight or lave this beach." It is needless to remark that of the couple were so changed afterward that you might drive a horse and wagon between them. There is a promenade along the ocean front for three or four miles, which is especially attractive on pleasant afternoons. In this only does the Grove and Park not differ from the fashionable seaside resort. For it is here you much fashionable seaside resort. For it is here you much fashion and beauty, see the girls fifting and the masher again at work. I have thought that if this state of things continues much longer my friend will not find much "solld comfort" here hereafter. To give you an idea of how many visit the Grove and Park, there were cleven excursion trains from different parts of the State on Thursday last, bringing in the aggregate eleven thomand people. There has been what you might call THE RELATIVE POSITION on pleasant afternoons. In this only does the Grove and Park not differ from the fashionable seaside resort. For it is here you meet fashion and beauty, see the girls flirting and the masher again at work. I have thought that if this state of things continues much longer my friend will not find much "solid comfort" here hereafter. To give you an idea of how many visit the Grove and Park, there were cleven excursion trains from different parts of the State on Thursday last, bringing in the aggregate eleven thomand people. There has been what you might call for the last three days, which had stopped all bathing: in fact, so bad that the most expert swimmers dare not venture in. I have seen many of Washington's familiar faces while here, and the mombers of that plucky club, Columbia, seen to have been well represented. I would advise all Washington been, for it is only a short ride, and 4 most of that, to see the place and that I have not been given to exaggeration in my account of the "Taxis Boats". Evaluation to come here, for it is not years and the lawe not been given to exaggeration in my account of the "Taxis Boats".

A "BOILING SUBF"

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Stock and Bond Quotations—Baltimor and New York Produce Markets.

The following observations on the transctions in the financial market yesterday, together with opening, highest, lowest, and closing quota-tions, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1429 F street, Washington, D. C.:

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. NEW YORK, Aug. 29, 3:10 p. m.—The favorable news from Washington caused the market to open trong at a considerable advance over Saturday's closing. The strength continued with occasional reactions, and the market closes at an advance of 14 to 3 per cent., and within 14 to 1 per cent. of the highest prices of the day. The only rumor worthy of mention was the one referred to on Saturday, namely: That the Secretary would call 20,000,000 extended fives bonds. The borrowing demand for stocks was smaller this morning than of late, which would indicate a considerable covering of shorts. Money continues to rule at 6 per cent. with exceptional transactions at 4 per cent, near the close. Government bonds have been firmer and show an advance of 1/4 to 1/2 per cent.

WALL STREET GORD.

NEW YORK, August 29, 10 a. m.—The unexpected improved condition of the President yesterday aused greatly increased confidence in financial ircles at the Branch, and a more cheerful feeling brevailed among the bankers and brokers. James grevaled among the bankers and forekers. James (1997) and the greated among the bankers and prokers. James (1998) and ultimately recover, but which the president would be under he was going to polymen. It did not matter, he thought whether the Bank of England further advanced rates that there would be attract and the market for success and bond was going to polymen. It did not matter, he thought, whether the Bank of England further advanced rates that there would be attract and that he looked with more solicitude to the condition of financial affairs in London than here had been great withdrawals of gold in Italy for the resimption of specie payments in Italy for the resimption of specie payments of the country, and, finally, the balance of trade These facts, the latter thought, indicate a some was very joyous sealerday over the washington advices, and predicted a string of the western and southwestern north the regarded as surprisingly managed in disturbance should occur here sayed was very joyous sealerday over the washington advices, and predicted as traction of the strength of the digman believed that the President would pull trough and ultimately recover, but whether he inclantly meeting this cut, and the Baltimore and Ohto charge twelve cents, ciafining it can get all the business it requires at twelve cents. The Grand Trunk was the first to cut.

12:40 p. m.—The steamer Britannie brings gold as follows: Drexel, Morgan & Co., £190,800; British Bant, £100,800; Ridder, Pozhody & Co., £20,357. The improved tendency for American securities is induced by smallness of settlement and carrying rate being easier. The rates now are from 3 to 7 per cent over the next formightly settling day, which estemsibly occurs to morrow, it being ticket day, and Wednesday formightly settling day.

I respectfully call your attention to TURCK'S DIAMOND INDESTRUCTIBLE DRAFTING INK. This Ink has the following advantages over all other drafting Inks heretofore used:

I. It produces a clean, even line, and does not "wash off," thus enabling the draughtsman to color his methanical drawings without danger of the lines "running." chanical drawings without danger of the lines "running."

2. It being ready for immediate use, it obviates the tedious work of "rubbing up" ink, thus saving much time and labor.

3. Being composed of indestructible material of a dense, black color, which makes a durable drawing and a perfect photographic couy.

4. The Ink containing no soul or alkall, prevents any danger of destruction to drawing ulousless or paper.

1. Febr. you to the U. S. Fatent Office, General Land Office, Interior Department, Architects Office, Treasury Department, and all other Department of the U. S. Government. Very respectfully.
